

European Anti-Poverty Network (Ireland)

2010 EU Year for Combating Poverty & Social Exclusion

Participative Regional Workshops

Galway – 19th March

Cork – 24th March

Dublin – 25th March

2010 is the European Year for Combating Poverty and Social Exclusion. In March, the European Anti Poverty Network (EAPN) Ireland its 2010 Working Group and its partners will hold three participative workshops in Galway, Cork and Dublin, in association with the Community Action Network. The aim is to ensure that people who experience poverty and social exclusion have an opportunity to contribute their ideas and experiences to the Government’s National Programme for the Year.

The regional meetings will:

- Facilitate the participation of people who experience poverty and social exclusion (and their organisations) in developing the programme and activities for 2010.
- Seek to identify people who experience poverty and social exclusion, in order to put supports in place to allow those individuals and groups to directly contribute to the Year.

The workshops are being supported by the National Implementation Body, the Government body responsible for the 2010 Year (comprised of the Combat Poverty Agency and the Office for Social Inclusion). Feedback from the workshops will be submitted to the NIB.

Registration

If you, or members of your community or group would like to attend a workshop, or if you require further information, please contact paul@eapn.ie, Alfred at policy@eapn.ie or call 01-874 5737

If necessary transport and childcare expenses can be covered. Claims should be submitted in advance with receipts submitted after the event. To facilitate participation from rural areas, group transport may be arranged in advance with EAPN Ireland.

2010 has been identified by the European Union as the European Year for Combating Poverty and Social Exclusion. The EU and Member States agreed to make a ‘decisive impact on poverty by 2010’. Help us to make an impact by getting involved, making suggestions or sharing experiences. For more information, please visit www.eapn.ie
